Every project is a new possibility to breathe life into characters. Always striving for memorable, believable, and sincere performances.

CAREER

Doodle Nap

August 2016 _ Currently
Vancouver, BC

Handcrafted animation and illustration for traditional and new media, from TV, to virtual reality, and everything in-between. Currently developing a video game.

Genesis Gaming

April 2014 _ June 2016
Vancouver, BC

Animate and collaborate with fellow in-house and outsourced artists, while making sure engineers get animated assets organized, on time, and technically compliant. Also, involved in optimizing Creative-Engineering pipeline, templates, wikis, tutorials and UI. Without ever forgetting to smile.

Ribbit Ribbit Studios

March 2012 _ February 2013
Vancouver, BC

My main task was to animate, although, I also did some character design and storyboard projects. I also supported the team on whatever I could contribute with e.g., brainstorming, technical support, and dance with Tomasito the tortoise pet.

Giant Ant

May 2012 _ May 2012
Vancouver, BC

Delivered all 3D animation needed for the project on schedule, and helped finish hand-drawn animation on the last bit. I learned Cinema 4D & Flash to integrate with the studio's pipeline.
